Global Discovery to Development Innovation Forum - Speaker Bio

Tauseef Butt - President and CEO - Progenra Inc

Dr. Butt obtained Master’s Degrees in Biochemistry from the University of Dundee, Scotland, UK. His Ph.D. degree in Molecular Biology was awarded by The University of Glasgow, Scotland. He was a Staff Fellow at the National Institutes of Health, Bethesda, MD, before joining SmithKline Beckman (now GSK) Pharmaceuticals. He worked in number of therapeutic areas during his 14 years in the SmithKline organization, where he was Assistant Director in Research and Development.

Dr. Butt serves as an Adjunct Professor in Biomedical Engineering at Drexel University, Philadelphia and is active in a number of national and regional professional organizations, including several dedicated to biotechnology. He has a track record of establishing successful biotech companies that are profitable. He has raised several million dollars and brought numerous technologies and products to the market. Dr. Butt is a co-founder of Progenra, Inc.